Kings Oxford consists of two fantastic campuses – St. Josephs in the popular area of Cowley and St. Michaels in the city centre. Offering a bright, compact, and modern space, St. Michaels is surrounded by shops, restaurants, and some of Oxford's foremost tourist attractions. Just a 5 minute walk away is the Alfred Street annexe, a further College building containing extra classrooms. St. Michaels campus is where the majority of English programmes take place.

Accommodation

Student houses

Kings Oxford students have access to a number of student houses, usually located within walking distance, or a short bus ride (up to 30 minutes) of the College. Rooms in student houses are all single (with shared bathrooms) and they are offered on a self-catering basis. This option is open to students aged 18 and over.

Homestay

Homestays are located within 30 minutes of St. Michaels by bus. All are carefully selected and inspected by our Accommodation Officers.

Single rooms are available year round, and twin rooms are available during the summer only.

Student residence

Our new purpose-built, premium quality residence is exclusively for Kings students. Located in the vibrant student area of Cowley, it has a range of amenities right on the doorstep, but is also just a 15 minute walk from both Oxford campuses - St. Michaels and St. Josephs. The residence contains single, en suite rooms and shared kitchen and dining facilities. There is also an on-site warden.
